

Kevin Aguyar Brix

Conjugacy and continuous orbit equivalence of graphs

In this talk, I will discuss the notions of conjugacy and continuous orbit equivalence of the boundary path spaces of directed graphs, and how these dynamical relations may be encoded into their graph C^* -algebras. This is particularly interesting because it has spawned similar results related to irreversible dynamics that does not necessarily originate from graphs.